

Maya Bay

Description

Famous thanks to the movie “The Beach” with Leonardo DiCaprio, Maya Bay is a cove located in Phi Phi Leh, one of the two main Phi Phi islands of Krabi province in Thailand. It was, until 2018, one of the main tourist attractions in the region. Since then, access has been prohibited and is scheduled to reopen for 2022. The closure aimed at reviving the decimated corals and flora of the once excessively frequented region.
